

During, For, and While: Practice Worksheet

Complete the sentences with during, for, or while.

I can use during to talk about when something happens.

I can use while to talk about when two things happen at the same time.

I can use for to talk about the length of time that something happens.

Complete the sentences with during, for, or while.

When I use during , I use a noun afterwards.

When I use for , I use a number or a quantity of time.

When I use while , I use a noun and a verb afterwards.

Complete the sentences with during, for, or while.

1. I have studied English for 5 years.
2. I studied English a lot during my time in university.
3. While I study English, I try to concentrate on grammar.
4. She went to Tunis during her trip to Tunisia.
5. She was in Tunis for 1 day.
6. She visited Tunis while she was in Tunisia.
7. She wasn't in Tunis for a very long time.
8. They drank a lot of water during lunch.

9. They drank a lot of water while they were having lunch.
10. He relaxed in the park at one point during the afternoon break.
11. He relaxed in the park for most of his afternoon break.
12. He drank some tea while relaxing in the park.

Now, answer these questions for you:

1. How long have you studied English? (How long = how much time)

I have studied English for 2 years

2. Where do you concentrate your focus during your English lessons?

During my English lessons, I focus on vocabulary

3. Where did you go for your favorite vacation, and what did you do during this trip?

Last year I went to Lyon with my friends, and during the trip, I visited museums and ate a lot of good food

4. Use "while" to tell me about something you did on your trip:

I took pictures of us while we were walking in the city